1 Spectacular pair of daguerreotypes from the period of the California Gold Rush and the activities of the Mormon Brigade in the Mexican War. First is a quarter plate from the 1850's showing an inn with a sign on a tall pole in front. "Pleasant Vally [sic] House-B Jones". This was a way station about 8 miles southeast of Placerville in El Dorado County. Together with a sixth plate portrait of Azariah Smith, identified in the case as "AS", and by a note pinned to the velvet pad as "Brother Azariah".

Smith was a member of the Mormon Brigade raised at Fort Leavenworth in 1846. The Brigade was sent to support General Stephen Watts Kearny in defeating the Mexicans in New Mexico and California. After the war Smith was a laborer at Sutters Mill when gold was discovered in January 1848. In the book California Gold Camps by Erwin Gudde he writes that Pleasant Valley was the assembly point for the Mormons trek from Sutters Fort back to Salt Lake in the summer of 1848. They named the location and spent several weeks there washing gold before opening the Mormon Emigrant Trail eastward, later to be retraced by thousands of westward bound gold seekers.

The image of the inn is bold and clear, with 3 people standing outside. Numerous original buffing (polishing) lines are visible, 100% original to the piece. The dag of Smith has minor mat marks and a few teensy specks on the surface. Both have new glass and have been resealed. Accompanied by the book The Gold Discovery Journal of Azariah Smith, University of Utah Press 1990. 16,500.

2 Superb embossed copper plaque with finely detailed portrait "Red Jacket - The Seneca Chief". Scene of him standing in wooded setting, holding tomahawk and wearing his large peace medal. Rattlesnake by his feet. Diework by Leonard, second quarter 19th century. 5 X 6 in great period mahogany veneer and gilt frame 10 X 11, choice XF condition. 2,500.

3 Very rare 8" creamware pitcher showing Washington greeting an Indian, a scene reminiscent of the engraved Indian peace medals by Joseph Richardson. Military encampment in background, title in ribbon at top "THE FOEDERAL UNION". Listed in Arman's ANGLO-AMERICAN CERAMICS as item F4. At the time the book was published (1998), the example shown was thought to be unique. Reverse is a very rare Washington memorial transfer with Liberty, shield and monument, Arman W51. The appearance is perfect, but I know for certain that my restorer did some work on it - I just can't tell what he did (he is very good). A marvelous rarity. 7,500.

4 Very rare 5" pearlware tankard, raised letters in band around middle "AMERICA INDEPENDENT 1776". Top with green/blue/yellow floral design, curved blue stripes at bottom. Arman A1-44, pg 237. Perfect. 2,950.

5 Exceedingly rare trade card for Fords Theatre and the Holiday Street Theatre, Washington DC, John T Ford Proprietor. Pre-assassination, dates 1863-1865. Size 2¾ X 5. Bit of light foxing, scrapbook residue on the blank reverse. I don't recall ever seeing another. 2,750.

6 Rare 4½ creamware tankard depicting the Death of General James Wolfe on the Plains of Abraham, Quebec, 1759. This battle finalized the British conquest of North America in the French and Indian War. Superb condition - just a few minor little scratches. Arman D2, rated as extremely rare, and previously unknown on a tankard. 2,750.

7 An unusual item of "firearms curiosa". 5" steel single shot gun in the form of a fountain pen, late 19th century. Unscrews at midsection to insert cartridge, cocked using sliding spring mechanism, fired by pushing small button (not seen in photo) that protrudes when cocked. No markings other than serial number 1067. Operates perfectly. Appx 45-50 caliber. 1,250.

8 Excessively rare embossed card 2½ X 3 with salt print photo "For President - Hon John C Breck(e)nridge of Kentucky." Published by Henry Granger, Boston. Photo a bit light as characteristic of salt prints, and a few tiny specks of foxing. Overall excellent plus, and the only example I have seen in 35 years. 3,250.

9 Solid gold Spingarn Medal, awarded annually since 1915 by the NAACP to one person a year for outstanding achievement by an African American. Created by Joel Elias Spingarn, Chairman of the NAACP. This is the second medal awarded (in 1916), to Colonel Charles Young. In 1916 Young was the highest ranking colored soldier in the US military. Born to slave parents in 1864, he graduated from West Point in 1889, and was later military attache to Haiti and Liberia. Additional biographical info included. This medal is 14K and weighs 5.6 ounces, so the value of the gold alone is over $5,400. Size 2½ (64mm), in original fitted case of issue. I have never seen another gold Spingarn medal for sale. 9,750.

10 A spectacular and previously unseen poster, printed by Eloquent Press, NYC. Nationalist (Franco) plane attacks Republican ground fighters who have interrupted an execution against the stucco wall of a hospital. Priests flee burning church at left. 28X41, near mint, on linen. 2,950.

11 One of the best World War I recruiting posters. Huge ape wearing German spiked helmet is coming ashore on America, with the ruins of Europe seen across the ocean. He carries a beautiful woman with both breasts exposed, and in his right hand is a large bloody club marked "KULTUR". Artist H R Hopps. Full sheet 28X42. A fine 12" vertical tear through the T in ENLIST has been repaired on the reverse with archival museum tape, which was also used to reinforce two of the edges to prevent tearing. Only the second example I have had in 35 years. The other had a 3" repaired tear and sold in 2004 to another dealer for $7,500. 3,500.

12 Exceptional life size plaster bust John Paul Jones. Signed Aubry Bros - Founders - NY. Likely a precursor to the bronze bust by the same company which was made in 1904 and was copied from the 1780 Houdon bust. An unusual feature is the epaulettes, which have 13 stars along the top strap. Buttons have anchors, and he wears an unidentified (French?) Medal. Overall excellent with some minor discoloration. Ex Paul Richards collection. 1,950.

13 One of the best brewery items I have ever offered. Huge 31" Satsuma china urn circa 1892-1895. J D Iler - Rochester Brewery - Kansas City, MO. Reverse of the large bulbous body shows an elaborate scene of samurai warriors. The 10" lid and 6" handles are fancy dogs. Some excellent professional restoration to lid, overall appearance is near mint. Very imposing - nobody will overlook it in your home or office. Note that the price includes shipping or in person delivery. 8,750.

14 How often do you have the opportunity to acquire a medal presented to an American President during his term of office? Superb gold and enamel medal, Philadelphia Peace Jubilee 1898. Reverse engraved "Hon William McKinley October 27 1898". White enamel bar, blue/yellow background to seal of the city. Diamond inset at bottom of wreath. McKinley was in Philadelphia Oct 26-27 & gave speeches at two different clubs. See also #41 in this catalog. 3,500.

15 The best Patton autographed photo I have seen. Large 6½ X 8½ (sight) in gorgeous 13 X 15 frame (not shown). Patton seated in cockpit of fighter plane, and has boldly inscribed at lower left "To Gen Vandenberg from G S Patton Jr". Vandenberg's distinguished career culminated as Chief of Staff of the Air Force, but the reason for this photo was because as commander of the Ninth Air Force he was directly responsible for tactical support to Patton's Third Army. Mint condition. 4,950.

16 Unique 12½ blue decorated stoneware jug "Lyman Stone - Waterbury VT - 1862 - Old Abe Pres". Impressed "St Johns Stoneware" beneath spout. The St Johns factory was operated by George W Farrar in 1862, and was located on the northern tributary of Lake Champlain, just a short distance across the Vermont - Canada border. Lyman Stone (1800-1870) was listed in the 1850 census as a blacksmith in Waterbury. Excellent condition. One of only three pieces of stoneware I have ever seen with a reference to Lincoln. 15,000.

17 Gorgeous 4½" opalescent Bristol glass mug with Federal eagle, circa 1810's. 1,250.

NOTE - ITEMS 18-87 WERE EACH PHOTOGRAPHED INDIVIDUALLY. THE PHOTOS ARE NOT TO SCALE.

18 Very rare silvered white metal 64mm (2½") "James Madison - President of the US From 1809 to 1817". Reverse eagle, "Industry Brings Plenty" (too bad the present Congress doesn't believe in that principle), and a quote from Madison about protection from invasion. A superb medal by Morris Furst, in choice AU condition. (What looks like a scratch on the reverse photo is just a thin line of toning). This and the Indian peace medal are the only contemporary medals of Madison. The last one I had sold for around $8,000. 6,950.

19 Very rare 2" pin for "Pitchfork Ben" Tillman, US Senator from SC. The silver pitchfork marked Tillman has speared three gold bugs marked Carlisle, Sherman and Cleveland. John G. Carlisle was
